

Course Expectations

Reading

It is pertinent that reading assignments are completed in a timely manner. It is the key learning skill that leads to primary comprehension of the material. Once the foundation is established meaningful discussion and elaboration can ensue. Your reading will check regularly via the daily quizzes, an integral part of the program.

Materials

- * Bring your textbooks daily – don't expect to leave them in class
- * Bring some extra/supplementary reading - daily
- * White college – ruled paper
- * #2 pencils and a set of color pencils for map work
- * Ink pens blue or black ink
- * College –ruled spiral notebook for FIGS

Categories/Weights

All categories in this course are weighted

25 %	General Assignments	GAS	Classwork
20 %	Quizzes	QZS	Concepts
25 %	Tests	TST	Test
30 %	Projects, Presentations, MT,Finals	PMF	Finals

Grades

A	94	100%	Standard Exemplary	1	100%
A-	90	93%	Standard Exceeded	2	90%
B+	87	89%
B	84	86%
B-	80	83%
C+	77	79%
C	74	76%	Standard Met	3	75%
C-	70	73%
D+	67	69%
D	60	66%	Standard Not Met	4	70%
F	59	Below

Attendance

TARDY – defined as arriving after the bell rings up to 5 minutes (school policy)
Tardy Unexcused

ABSENT – defined as arriving after 5 minutes (school policy)
Absent Unexcused
Excused Absent

School Absent
Sport Absent

Make – Up Policy for Assignments and Tests

Assignments, tests, and projects are due at the assigned and expected time. If your assignment requires the use of electronic technology. It is your responsibility to make sure it is completed early enough that any problems can be remedied before the the assignment is actually due.

- Late or unexcused assignments, quizzes, tests, or projects will receive a grade of 0%, Unless it has been officially excused, and if it begins to be an issue different channels will be pursued.
- No make-up work will be allowed for unexcused absences.

Classroom Expectations

- You are here to get as much from this educational process as possible.
- Good citizenship will prevail because of your maturity and respect for one another.
- Arriving to class on time, prepared to participate and learn are traits we display.
- Your use of time and energy are constructive and positive.
- You will assist in being responsible for your learning and physical environment.

=

Now Particulars

- When entering the class after the bell rings sign-in TARDY or LATE, if you have a note place on my keyboard.
- When leaving the classroom for any reason, except for emergencies, sign out.
- Food, candy, and drinks are expected to be consumed outside of class, they should not be reason for being tardy or late.
- Headgear of any type should be removed before entering the classroom, this is an equal opportunity expectation.
- Stay seated until the dismissal bell rings, we keep the free and clear.